LOYE MILLER RECOMMENDATIONS

Freelance Final Cut Pro Editor LKC Creative

When I have a big job, Loye is my first call. He is hands-down one of the most talented editors I know, with a sense of pacing and an understanding of story that are second to none. Loye and I have collaborated on several single-screen films as well as a handful of multi-screen projects. He is comfortable taking direction and then working his magic alone in the edit suite. And in today's production environment, when so many of us multi-task and have difficulty finding the time to spend a full day in the suite working with the editor, that level of talent is truly valuable.

Service Category: Writer/Editor

Luke Cline, Owner, LKC Creative

Year first hired: 2010 (hired more than once)

Top Qualities: Great Results, Expert, Creative

Freelance Video Editor Beyond Productions

"Loye is an accomplished story savvy producer/editor. He collaborates well with writers, but is also fabulous working alone with a bag load of rushes to structure a show for the writer to add narrative. He is equally comfortable following a brief or contributing ideas for the design and voice of a new show. He is very organized, and mentors those who work around him. In 3 words: Loye adds value." February 17, 2008

Ben Ulm, Executive Producer, Beyond Productions
managed Loye at Beyond Productions

Freelance Video Editor
National Geographic Television

"Loye Miller is an exceptionally talented video editor who always delivers first-rate shows and who is always a pleasure to work with, even under the often grueling and demanding conditions of making television documentaries. He is highly creative, collaborative, and thoughtful. I would work with Loye all the time if he lived in the same city." March 4, 2008

Freelance Video Editor
National Geographic Television

"In many years in this business, I have rarely encountered a person who was more professional, more personable and better to have as a colleague than Loye Miller. To call him a great video editor is an understatement. He is at once a visionary editor, a magnificent producer and a person who makes the day and the project sail by with ease. I look forward to the opportunity to work him again at any time, any place. In short, he'll make you look good. And you'll be grateful." August 4, 2008

Richard Mackenzie, Owner, Mackenzie Productions
worked with Loye at Loye Miller Productions, Inc.

"Loye has worked with me on several projects at National Geographic, one that won a National Emmy. He is, by far, one of the best editors I've ever worked with and I highly recommend him. Loye is excellent at his craft and can bring any story to a higher level. He's more than an editor -- he has a real producer's eye and is a wonderful collaborator. If you're looking for someone you can trust to do a masterful job with little supervision, Loye is the editor for you!" February 13, 2008
